Welcome

This three-bedroom first floor flat offers generously proportioned accommodation on a single level, an impressive footprint for a property of this type. The accommodation comprises a spacious lounge, fitted kitchen, three bedrooms, bathroom and two store rooms. Two of the bedrooms are comfortable doubles, with a third flexible room currently noted as a bedroom/dining room — well suited for use as a dedicated dining space, home office, or additional bedroom. A built-in storage cupboard off the lounge adds further practical space. The property further benefits from its own private garden to the rear. Situated on Robertson Road, Dunfermline, the property is within easy reach of local amenities, schools, and transport links.

EXTRAS INC. IN SALE/AGENTS NOTE

All floorcoverings, blinds, bathroom and light fittings together with integrated appliances.

From 1st February 2022, residential properties in Scotland are required by law to have installed a system of inter-linked smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and heat detectors (the "inter-linked system"). No warranty is given that any interlinked system has been installed in this property and interested parties should make their own enquiries.

Dunfermline

The ancient capital of Dunfermline won its bid to have official status city in May 2022, as part of the civic honour's competition to celebrate the Queen's platinum jubilee. The City of Dunfermline is of considerable historic interest and is the resting place of King Robert the Bruce. Carnegie's Birthplace museum, the Abbey and Abbot House reflect the historic interest of the city, whilst recent developments have seen Dunfermline move into the modern era with Carnegie Museum and Library. Dunfermline is located approximately five miles from the Forth bridges and is therefore particularly popular with commuters to Edinburgh and many parts of the central belt with easy access to the M90 motorway with its direct links to Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee and across the Kincardine Bridge by way of motorways to Stirling, Glasgow and the West. It benefits from a full range of shops, social and leisure facilities and educational establishments. The local railway stations provide a regular service to Edinburgh with intercity links to other parts of the UK. There are regular and convenient bus services both local and national.
