Welcome

This three-bedroom terraced home offers well-proportioned accommodation over two floors, a generous footprint for a terraced property — set in the popular village of High Valleyfield. The ground floor provides a lounge and a large kitchen/dining room with two storage cupboards off the hall. The first floor comprises three bedrooms and a bathroom. All three bedrooms are of a good size, with the principal bedroom extending to over 12 feet and benefiting from built-in wardrobe storage. A further storage cupboard is provided on the landing. The property also has a private driveway to the front and fully enclosed garden to the rear with a fantastic garden room providing further accommodation. Situated in the village of High Valleyfield, the property is within easy reach of transport links and the amenities of nearby Dunfermline.

EXTRAS INC. IN SALE/AGENTS NOTE

All floor coverings, blinds, bathroom and light fittings together with integrated appliances.

From 1st February 2022, residential properties in Scotland are required by law to have installed a system of inter-linked smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and heat detectors (the "inter-linked system"). No warranty is given that any interlinked system has been installed in this property and interested parties should make their own enquiries.

High Valleyfield

High Valleyfield is a quiet village located approximately four miles from Dunfermline and within easy reach of the motorway network providing easy access to Glasgow and Edinburgh. The village has shops, school and nursery providing basic day to day necessities and Dunfermline is easily reached for a wider range of amenities. Approximately 1 mile away is The Royal Burgh of Culross (National Trust for Scotland) which lies 12 miles west of the Forth Road Bridge and is a picturesque coastal village dating back to medieval times. 16th and 17th Century Culross was a thriving community and sea port, as evidenced by the architectural style of the village and surrounding properties of the period. The village looks across the River Forth complimenting Culross's natural beauty. It benefits from a primary school, mobile post office, local pub and of course the historical Palace and grounds. Easy access is gained to the M90 motorway with its direct links to Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee and across the Kincardine Bridge by way of motorways to Stirling, Glasgow and the West. There is a regular and reliable bus service providing transport to other west fife villages or nearby Kincardine and Dunfermline where a wider range of amenities can be found.
