Dunfermline

Once the ancient capital of Scotland and now a proudly crowned city - earning its official status in May 2022 during the Queen's Platinum Jubilee celebrations - Dunfermline is a place where history runs deep and ambition runs deeper. This is the city that gave the world Andrew Carnegie, where King Robert the Bruce rests beneath the arches of its magnificent Abbey, and where medieval streets now hum with modern energy. Steeped in heritage yet firmly forward-looking, Dunfermline blends the grandeur of Carnegie's Birthplace Museum, the Abbey and Abbot House with the contemporary vision of the Carnegie Museum and Library - a city that wears its past proudly while embracing its future. Dunfermline is ideally placed. Just five miles from the iconic Forth Bridges, it offers effortless access to Edinburgh via the M90, with swift onward links to Perth, Dundee, Stirling, Glasgow and beyond. Two railway stations deliver regular services into the capital and intercity connections across the UK, while comprehensive bus routes keep the wider region within easy reach. Day-to-day living is equally well served, with an excellent range of shops, leisure facilities, restaurants and highly regarded schools - everything you'd expect from a city that has been at the heart of Scottish life for over a thousand years.
