Welcome

This charming one-bedroom bungalow offers 684 square feet of well-planned single-storey living in the highly desirable coastal village of Limekilns. A welcoming hallway with a storage cupboard links all the principal rooms. The lounge is a generous size at over 13 feet in length, flowing through to a bright garden room that adds valuable additional space for relaxing or entertaining. The kitchen sits just off the hallway, fitted with a good range of units and space for freestanding appliances. The bedroom is a comfortable double with a built-in wardrobe, served by a bathroom fitted with both a bath and shower. Set in a peaceful setting, the property is well placed for local amenities and remains within easy reach of Dunfermline, making it an excellent choice for downsizers or those seeking single-level living.

EXTRAS INC. IN SALE/AGENTS NOTE

All floorcoverings, blinds, bathroom and light fittings together with integrated appliances.

From 1st February 2022, residential properties in Scotland are required by law to have installed a system of inter-linked smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and heat detectors (the "inter-linked system"). No warranty is given that any interlinked system has been installed in this property and interested parties should make their own enquiries.

Dunfermline

The ancient capital of Dunfermline won its bid to have official status city in May 2022, as part of the civic honour's competition to celebrate the Queen's platinum jubilee. The City of Dunfermline is of considerable historic interest and is the resting place of King Robert the Bruce. Carnegie's Birthplace museum, the Abbey and Abbot House reflect the historic interest of the city, whilst recent developments have seen Dunfermline move into the modern era with Carnegie Museum and Library. Dunfermline is located approximately five miles from the Forth bridges and is therefore particularly popular with commuters to Edinburgh and many parts of the central belt with easy access to the M90 motorway with its direct links to Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee and across the Kincardine Bridge by way of motorways to Stirling, Glasgow and the West. It benefits from a full range of shops, social and leisure facilities and educational establishments. The local railway stations provide a regular service to Edinburgh with intercity links to other parts of the UK. There are regular and convenient bus services both local and national.
